CopyLady: An Intrinsic Part of the Social Fabric of Southwest Florida

With $500 in her pocket, businesswoman and entrepreneur Cynthia Duff founded CopyLady in 2002. Built from the ground up on the principles of integrity and service, Cynthia has grown CopyLady into the leading supplier of copiers and printers to the business community of Southwest Florida.

CopyLady provides document solutions and services to numerous non-profit organizations, local theaters, doctor's offices, and attorney firms, to name a few. Known for their unique 2-Hour Service Response Guarantee, CopyLady keeps local businesses up and running and is the officially approved and recommended copier company of the Lee County Bar Association.

“Being a female leader in a corporate world dominated by men isn't always easy,” said Duff, “Overcoming obstacles faced in owning a small business is achieved with strength and confidence.” As a way to empower other women to achieve success and confidence in business, Cynthia participates at local business workshops as a guest speaker panelist, sharing her stories of speaking up with boldness and staying focused through hard times. “Believing in yourself and learning from mistakes are powerful business tools,” continued Duff.

A member of Rotary International for more than twenty years, Cynthia has been greatly influenced by the service organization's motto of “Service Above Self.” Cynthia's complete commitment to service and giving back to her community is represented in the over 107 local organizations of need to which CopyLady sponsors or provides donations.

On any given weekend, CopyLady's founder and President Cynthia Duff can be found volunteering at a women's shelter, helping at a local food bank, or sponsoring a non-profit event to raise much-needed funds for issues in the community. The business and social impact of this small business resonates in the Southwest Florida Community and beyond.
